If you do not pay off the full amount outstanding, we will allocate your payment to the outstanding balance in a specific order, which is set out on the reverse of this statement. The way in which payments are allocated can make a significant difference to the amount of interest you will pay until the balance is cleared completely.

Minimum payments

If you make only the minimum payment each month, it will take you longer and cost you more to clear your balance.

Dispute resolution

If you have a problem with your agreement, please try to resolve it with us in the first instance. If you are not happy with the way in which we handled your complaint or the result, you may be able to complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service. If you do not take up your problem with us first you will not be entitled to complain to the Ombudsman. We can provide details of how to contact the Ombudsman.

Important Changes to Your Agreement

Where you make a payment that does not pay the entire balance on your account, we will apply the payment in a manner that pays off any cash advances and more expensive balances first. This is a change to clause 5 g) of your agreement.

The above change is made under clause 8 of your agreement and is effective from 21st December 2010.
