Dear Mr Lisewski

RE: DIVORCE AND PROPERTY TRANSFER MATTERS

We enclose the following and request that you sign those documents where indicated:

1. Application for Consent Orders;
2. Proposed Orders; and
3. Transfer.

In relation to the Transfer, we note that you have already signed a Transfer however it would appear that the witness who signed that Transfer is not sufficiently qualified. We request that you arrange to have the enclosed documents witnessed before a Notary Public as this should avoid any concern by the relevant authorities that the documents have not been properly witnessed.

Once you have signed those documents, please return them to our office so that we may attend to the filing of the Consent Orders and subsequent registration of the Transfer. The Transfer will be on the basis that your ex-Wife assumes responsibility for the mortgage.

DIVORCE

We confirm that the Application for Divorce proceeded on 18 June 2002 and that a decree nisi was granted. A decree absolute will be granted within one month.

Please do not hesitate to contact our office should you have any queries,
